Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian housing ministry that works in partnership with people in need to improve the conditions in which they live. Habitat challenges people of compassion to provide the initial capital, through gifts and no-interest loans, to build or renovate simple, decent homes for the inadequately sheltered. Houses are sold at no-profit, with no-interest mortgages repaid over a 15 to 25 year period. The house payments are recycled to build more houses through a local Fund for Humanity.

includes a 24-hour emergency center; acute inpatient care for medical, surgical, pediatric, and obstetric needs; physician clinics (MedChoice) and a comprehensive ambulatory services unit serving the special needs of outpatients scheduled for same day surgery. In addition to primary care, AMC provides a broad spectrum of specialty care services encompassing: advanced medical imaging technologies (MRI, CT, PET and nuclear medicine imaging, cardiac catheterization, special procedures angiography, echocardiography, mammography and ultrasound), obstetrics, gynecology, general surgery, family medicine, internal medicine, otolaryngology, pediatrics, hematology, vascular surgery, gastroenterology, geriatrics, psychiatry, orthopedics, thoracic surgery, ophthalmology, neurology and urology. Oncology services including cancer screening, Health & Wellness Services, chemotherapy and radiation therapy are available at the J.B. & Greeta B. Arthur Cancer Center.
Healthworks is an outpatient physical rehabilitation center for occupational medicine, physical therapy, sports medicine, speech therapy and occupational therapy. The Jordan-Waters Heart Center, located on the third floor of AMC, offers cardiac and pulmonary services in one location to best serve patients. The Audrain Medical Center medical staff includes 84 professionals specializing in numerous fields of medicine. AMC physicians are board certified at a rate of 82%. Audrain Medical Center is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) corporation with the mission "to care for the sick and injured and to continuously improve the health and well-being of the communities we serve, in partnership with physicians, healthcare providers, and residents." This health care facility, including emergency services, does not discriminate against patients because of race, creed, color, national

Big Brothers Big Sisters is a matching up of friends. Every Big Brother and Big Sister is a volunteer. They are not paid to spend time with a child; they do it because they want to help a child. As a service for youth, Big Brothers Big Sisters is unique. While the relationship between the volunteer and the child is a direct and individual one, backing it up is a social service professional. Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Missouri currently serves the counties of Boone and Audrain. Right now there are over 150 children waiting to be matched with Big Brothers or Big Sisters.

SowJoy Ministries opens wide the opportunity for Christians to give feet to their faith by “loving our neighbors as ourselves.” Change is created by nurturing a process of wholeness that goes beyond situation solutions; where hope and help are given in the reality of the present situation. This is accomplished through intentional relationships, one-on-one life style mentoring and several life skills classes offered in our Earn While You Learn/Learn to Own program. Our Mercy in Ministry (M n M) program is a broad spectrum ministry to those who are, or have been, in connection with SowJoy’s educational classes or events.
